IMPROV FOR ORGANISATION WELL-BEING

INCREASE SELF-ESTEEM, AWARENESS AND TRUST WITH THIS POWERFUL COLLABORATION METHOD.

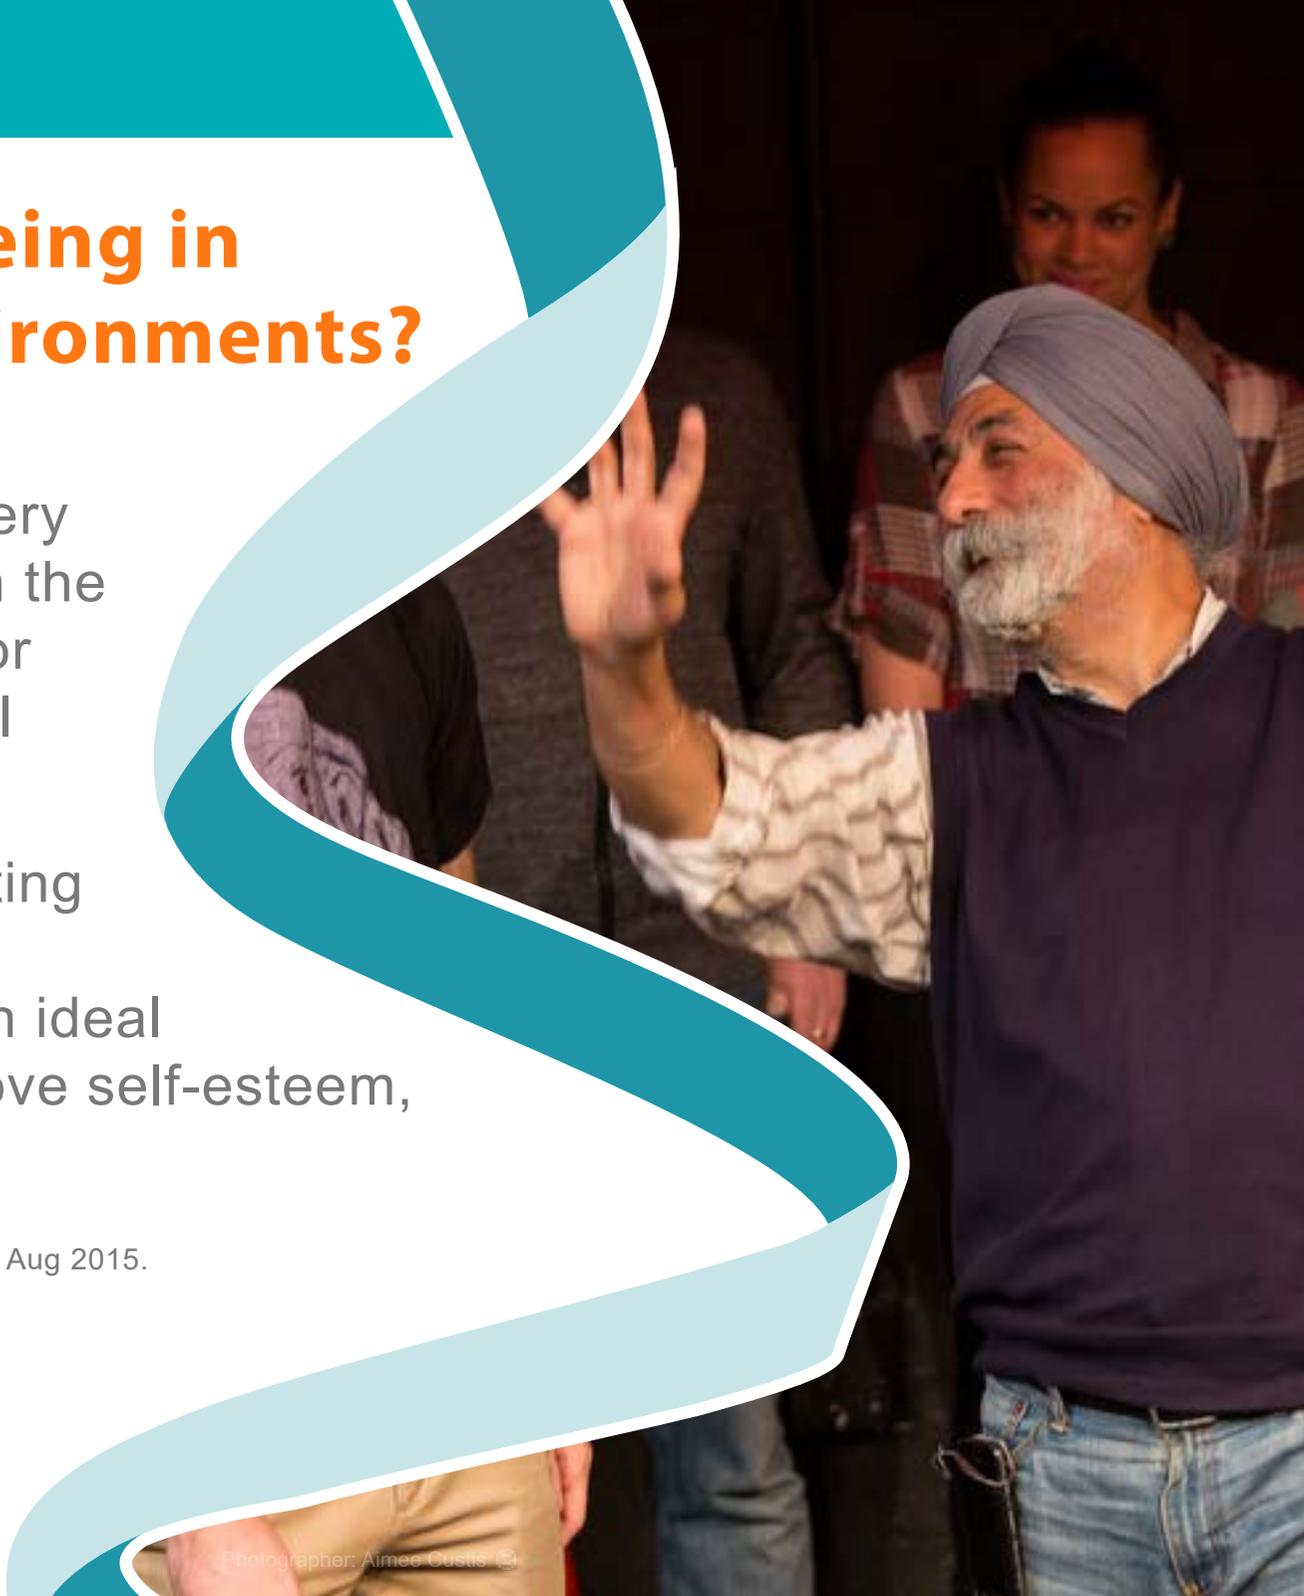

IDEAL FOR THE SERVICE AND PUBLIC SECTORS

Want to boost well-being in intensive service environments?

24 days a year are lost from every case of anxiety or depression in the workplace. Stress, depression or anxiety accounted for 40% of all work-related ill health cases.

Studies^[1] have shown that creating a collaborative space free of judgment or failure can make an ideal environment for people to improve self-esteem, confidence, and creativity.

1. 'Four reasons to take An Improv class'. Forbes magazine, Aug 2015.

What is improv?

Improvisation, or 'improv', is a form of live theatre in which the plot, characters and dialogue of a game, scene or story are made up in the moment. There are no lines to rehearse and the improv process is highly creative. No acting skills are required.

How can improv benefit your organisation?

Studies have shown that the skills of improvisation can help with better management of unexpected changes and uncertainty, increase team collaboration and the ability to absorb new ideas.

Improv will help your organisation:

- Boost well-being, resulting in reduced absences and conflict
- Increase the ability for teams to self manage issues and opportunities
- Enhance the ability to generate innovative ideas around your own service or the process, leading to better customer experience and/or reduced costs

Improv will help your staff:

- Increase confidence
- Cope better with unexpected situations
- Be more open to new ideas
- Share thoughts in an open and non-judgemental way

A summary of our improv session

We run some warm up exercises, gently introducing improv principles in each round. Improv principles we practice include: deep listening, supporting others, allowing spontaneity, accepting mistakes.

After this, we run some improv games, such as 'Freeze Tag', 'Party Quirks' and 'Gibberish'. As well as taking an active part, participants will get the opportunity to observe (be the audience), provide encouragement and give feedback.

At the end of each game, there is a short feedback session on what was learned and how this creates development opportunities back at the workplace.

There will be no PowerPoint presentations or note taking! Improv sessions are well-structured with principles that provide a strong foundation for creativity. Playfulness is gently encouraged at all times and no acting or comedy skills are required. Our experience shows that creativity and spontaneity are possible for all.

We will create a programme to suit you kinetik solutions is a change management consultancy. We have worked with complex public and service organisations on all aspects of change over 10 years. We understand some of the issues you face in employee engagement, business processes, and technology.

Our tailored session(s) will use the most appropriate improv tools for new insight; to boost the well-being of your staff and create innovation for business processes.

We can create a plan for standalone or multiple sessions encompassing different stakeholder groups. Our sessions are based on your requirements and can last from two hours to a whole day.

The improv sessions will be conducted by our experts who have studied improv formally as well as practiced the craft.

Up to 20 of your staff can participate, making it a value for money investment per person. Contact us at bebetter@kinetik.uk.com or call us on 0203 397 0686 to find out more.

Consultancy Profile

kinetik solutions is a UK based management consultancy which was formed in 2007. We deliver business transformation, process excellence, and change management in operational settings. We have delivered work to several large and multi-national organisations around the world as well as large public sector organisations including the NHS.

We are the catalyst for operational change. In order to make change effective for our clients, kinetik solutions has developed three solution areas which can be adapted for your organisation. We take pride in working with clients for sustainable results above all else. Each member of our team has extensive experience in large scale transformations in both private and public sectors with at least 10 years of senior business or consulting experience. Most importantly our team can blend in and work within different cultures and leadership styles.

We craft our work based understanding “on the ground realities” in combination with our experience and commitment towards perfection. We work in collaboration with all levels of your organisation, making our work value for money. We believe that the best way of embedding change is to help you develop a clear vision of future state, engage with your change team and support you in shaping projects. We believe in always keeping you in charge, and depart as soon as your team is able to sustain itself.
